

CHARLES E. HARVEY, JR.

ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR, Theological Education and Distance Learning

Serving the Convention since 2007; Prior service 1999-2002

Primary Responsibility:

To assist the director of Theological Education and Distance Learning to develop, coordinate, promote, implement and administer the Convention's statewide strategy and program of distance learning that supports and expands theological education and skill (ministry) based training opportunities for Florida Baptists.

Birth: New Orleans, Louisiana

Spouse: Barbara

Education: New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary, New Orleans, Louisiana, D.Min., 1987
New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary, New Orleans, Louisiana, M.Div., 1977
Northeast Louisiana University, Monroe, Louisiana, B.A., 1973

Previous Experience:

Pastor of Education and Strategic Development, First Baptist Church, Orlando, Florida, 2006-2007

Vice President of Development, New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary, New Orleans, Louisiana, 2002-2006

Director of Theological Education and Distance Learning, Florida Baptist Convention, Jacksonville, Florida, 1999-2002

Assistant Professor/Associate Director of the Professional Doctorate Program, New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary, 1997-1999

Associate Pastor/Education, First Baptist Church, Windermere, Florida, 1990-1996

Campus Director, Louisiana Baptist Student Union, 1980-1990

Associate Pastor/Education and Administration, Ridge Avenue Baptist Church, West Monroe, Louisiana, 1977-1980

Denominational Activities:

Associational positions—Greater Orlando Baptist Association

Florida Baptist Convention, State Board of Missions
Task Force for Florida Baptist Student Work

Special Honors: Citizen of the Year for Orlando, Florida, presented by Universal Studios' Stars of Central Florida Program

Church Membership:

First Baptist Church of Orlando, Orlando, Florida