

TYRUS C. WOOD, JR.

DIRECTOR, Media Services Department
Serving the Convention since 1983

Primary Responsibility:

To provide media support to the convention's program staff; producing informational audiovisual presentations about the mission and ministry work of local Baptist churches with media-related information, training and consultative services.

Birth: Covington, Georgia

Spouse: Roblyn Moran

Education: Pacific Western University, Los Angeles, California, B.S. Communications, 1987

Previous Experience:

Associate Director, Office of Public Relations, Florida Baptist Convention, 1983-1987

Audiovisual Production Specialist, Department of the Navy, Naval Weapons Center, China Lake, California, 1981-1983

Senior Media Analyst, Syscon Corporation, Ridgecrest, California, 1976-1981

Chief Copywriter, KPBC Radio Station, Dallas, Texas, 1974-1976

Audiovisual Assistant, Dallas Independent School District, Dallas, Texas, 1974

Military Experience:

United States Army, Reserve, 1970-1976
168th Engineer Battalion, Dallas, Texas

United States Army, Active, 1966-1970
197th Infantry Brigade, Fort Benning, Georgia
213th Assault Support Helicopter Company, Vietnam
15th Aviation Group, Germany

Publications: More than a dozen media related articles in Educational and Industrial Television; Technical Photography; The Photographic Society of American Journal; Media Church Administration; The Church Musician, The Christian Ministry

Professional Memberships:

Baptist Communicators Association (BCA)
International Television Association (ITVA)
International Association of Business Communicators (IABC)

Church Membership:

Southside Baptist Church, Jacksonville, Florida